

Calling all singers!
Associate Soloist with Escafeld Sheffield
September 2022 – August 2023
Information

Would you like some financial support for your musical development and solo roles with Escafeld Chorale, an experienced Sheffield choir, and its accomplished musical director? Read on....

What are we looking for?

A young Associate Soloist who will:

- perform to a high standard
- come with a recommendation from Sheffield University Music Department or a reputable singing teacher
- enjoy guaranteed solo roles in three public concert programmes
- support Escafeld in agreed ways, enthusiastically and appropriately
- provide evidence of reliability and loyalty

What are we offering?

- Working experience with a forward-looking, mixed-voice choir of up to 60 voices
- Financial support of £400 for activities agreed with Escafeld's committee
- Collaboration with our Musical Director in the choice of music from Sept 2022 to August 2023
- Opportunities to sing to new audiences in various venues in the city and region

Invitation to apply coming soon to a notice board near you.

We plan to hold interviews and auditions at the end of March (dates tbc).

Make your interest known now. Our Associate Soloist co-ordinator will be happy to hear from you at: c.c.rohde@sheffield.ac.uk...and do visit our website, or come to our Christmas concert on Tuesday 14th December at St Andrew's Church, Psalter Lane!

www.escafeldchorale.org.uk

Making music in and around Sheffield in a friendly, relaxed atmosphere
Registered Charity no. 1110334

Musical Director: Nigel Russell-Sewell
Choir Accompanist: Thomas Crathorne

Previous Associate Soloists: Laura Lister, Deborah Finch, Matthew Palmer, Rosie Williamson, Jak Laight, Lindsey James, Keren Hadas, Tim Peters, Sarah Leffler